Commissioner's Minute

May is Mental Health Awareness Month

Commissioner's Minute

Positive Childhood Experiences (PCEs)

Research tell us that PCEs such as:

- Having supportive relationships with trusted adults
- Feeling safe and seen in the community
- Participating in meaningful group activities
- And having chances to contribute and grow...

...are key to developing well-rounded, emotionally healthy youth.

Commissioner's Minute

Scouting
America

PCEs in Scouting

- Scouts build connections with caring, consistent mentors.
- They experience a deep sense of belonging within their pack, troop, crew, post, or ship.
- They face challenges that foster confidence, responsibility, and growth.
- They give back through service – developing purpose, empathy, and civic engagement.

These experiences aren't just nice to have – they're protective. They buffer youth against stress, reduce the impact of trauma, and build the foundation for lifelong well-being.

Succession Planning

Scouting
America

Succession Planning

- Lots of units struggle when a key 3 leader departs.
- Do you use asst. Cub/Scoutmaster or Comm Chair?
- How do you ID new key leaders in your unit?
- When do you plan for succession? Have a Plan B?
- Commissioners can help facilitate the discussion.
- Succession planning for non-Key 3; Which ones?
- Succession planning in the youth positions...

Fall Activities & Annual Planning

Scouting

Fall Activities Planning

- When do your units plan for fall (events & training)?
- All of the training and events are up on the AAC page.
- How do you integrate recruiting and activities?
- Do you designate a lead for activities?
- Do you partner with another unit? Packs & Troops, etc.
- How do you decide on AAC vs. unit activities?
- What fall activities do your Scouts want?

Thank You
