Council-Wide Roundtable

Alamo Area Council

Pledge of Allegiance

Scout Oath

On my honor, I will do my best
To do my duty to God and my country and to obey the Scout Law;
To help other people at all times;
To keep myself physically strong,
mentally awake and morally straight.

Scout Law

A Scout is:	Obedient,
Trustworthy,	Cheerful,
Loyal,	Thrifty,
Helpful,	Brave,
Friendly,	Clean,
Courteous,	and
Kind,	Reverent.

Welcome!

Hot Topic: Friendly, Courteous, Kind

The fourth, fifth and sixth points of the Scout Law are: friendly, courteous and kind. These are values that each scout and scout leader affirm every time they repeat the Scout Law. Friendly, courteous and kind are values that should be displayed in thought, word and deed including the following places:

- Social Media
- Unit Meetings
- Family & Friends
- Social Gatherings
- Places of Worship
- Work
- Scouting Events
- Selling Popcorn
- Roundtable

Safety Moment: Balancing Scout Life

- We have to model balance, so youth understand the importance of personal care.
- Work-life balance and balance in Scouting is equally important.
- The Scout Oath and Law demonstrate balance by highlighting our duty to God, duty to country, and being physically strong, mentally awake, and morally straight.

Safety Moment: Balancing Scout Life

Burnout Symptoms

- Headaches
- Fatigue
- Feeling of Helplessness
- Reduced performance
- Impaired Concentration
- Depression
- Feeling of Isolation
- Irritability

Actions to Combat Burnout

- Take Time Off
- Communicate Clearly
- Limit Your Availability
- Know Your Limits
- Focus on What is Meaningful
- Just Say No

Membership Moment

Hold Normal Friend Activities

- Plan fun unit activities throughout the year that you would do in Scouting or outside of Scouting
- Invite friends from schools, sports, faith groups, and neighbors
- Troops, Crews, Ships, and Post members and parents need to promote these activities to everyone they know.
- It's important to invite, do not use the term recruit.

AAC Awards: Window Now Open

- Silver Beaver – Volunteers that provide exceptional support of scouting at the council level
- District Award of Merit – Volunteers that support scouting beyond their unit
- Council is also looking for nomination for the following:
 - Venturing Leadership Award
 - Whitney Young
 - Vale La Pena
 - Asian American Spirit of Scouting
- Send nominations to the Council Office care of Steven Verm
- DEADLINE FOR NOMINATIONS IS MONDAY NOVEMBER 3.
